James W.D. Williams, 'Case No. 1:18-cv-518'
Plaintiff,

-Vs-

Walmarts, President,
(Walmarts Inc.) Et. Al.,
Defendants,

Plaintiff's Response/Reply to
United States Magistrate Judge
Stephane K. Bowman's R&R
Filed On September 21, 2018

Now comes the Plaintiff, James W.D. Williams, IV, pro se, and he has no objections whatsoever to the R&R issued on September 21, 2018 as he finds such to be appropriate.

Plaintiff would note he does plan to file for "Leave of Trial Court" to file an "Amended Complaint" which will specifically list or name "Defendant Walmarts Inc." as Walmarts Inc. is presently listed or named as a John Doe.

Plaintiff would further note that in his complaint he alleges he thought he had paid for the boots or shoes as he trusted the Defendant Walmart cashier had properly scanned such and charged him for such but he then later found out on his way out the door that said Defendant Walmart Cashier failed to scan & charge him for said boots & shoes which was/is "Negligence" on his part, not the Plaintiff's. Therefore, the Plaintiff is not alleging he double paid for said boots & shoes. Instead, he alleges after he was cleared from any/all wrongdoing, or, negligence on his part and apologized to by Walmart staff for their own mistake that he then advised them he still wished to pay for said boots & shoes and gave them the additional money at that point.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays that the United States Magistrate Judge Stephanie K. Bowman September 2, 2018 R&B is adopted, accepted and ordered herein for good cause shown.

Respectfully Submitted,
